PROFILE

Being an enthusiastic and self-taught educationist turned into a Frontend developer. I believe in self-learning and thus completed many online courses regarding Frontend Development from basic to advance levels (Libraries and frameworks). . I'm an extremely fast learner and can grasp difficult concepts easily.

EXPERIENCE

FRONDEND DEVELOPER (INTERN)
at FlexNet tech Company   Aug2022 - Jan2023

During my intern period, I worked too deep on Frontend Development skills like designing and building UI components and also routing, testing and deploying web applications. Through this tenor, I improve my technical skills such as,

• Strong proficiency in JavaScript, including DOM manipulation.

• Through this, I understand React.js and its core principles and also got experience working on Next.js

• Prior experience with React.js, and Next.js workflows (such as Redux and other libraries).

• For styling purposes of UI, I am familiar with Material UI and Bootstrap

• During this tenure also developed frontend applications from scratch using React.js/Next.js/Redux/Material UI. The apps are live on the following links
